Douglas Fir Trees

FUN FACTS:
- The Douglas Fir tree became the official state tree of Oregon in 1939.
- The Douglas Fir’s soft, fragrant, dark to blue-green needles have made it one of the most popular Christmas trees all over the United States.
- Douglas Fir seeds and foliage are an important source of food and cover for many animals, including songbirds, rabbits and elk.

Bear Snores On
A Read Aloud Written by Karma Wilson and Jane Chapman

Mouse creeps into hibernating Bear's cozy lair looking for relief from the cold night, and soon is joined by Hare, Badger, Mole, Wren and Raven. Bear snores on as the high-spirited party gets going. The critters pop corn, make tea, twitter and chatter, until Bear wakes up with a giant sneeze! See what happens when he finally wakes up and finds his cave full of uninvited guests - all of them having a party without him!
