

TEC Nonprofit Partner Groups: Benefits and Fees Reference Guide

Become a partner of the largest network of non-profit organizations working on behalf of Central Oregon's environment!

The Environmental Center is the region's hub for collaboration and events that support a healthy environment and a sustainable future. We can help your organization achieve its mission by connecting you with like-minded individuals and organizations in the region.

Here's why over 20 non-profit organizations currently partner with The Environmental Center. For an annual fee (approximately $175), you receive:

Benefits
